

GNEDENKO FORUM

INTERNATIONAL GROUP ON RELIABILITY

The Gnedenko Forum was founded in 2004 by an unofficial international group of experts in the dependability theory for the purpose of professional support of researches from all over the world who are interested in studying and developing the scientific, technical and other aspects of the dependability theory, risk analysis and safety in the theoretical and practical domains.

The Forum exists on the Internet as a non-for-profit organization. It aims to involve into joint discussion and communication technical experts interested in developing the dependability theory, safety and risk analysis regardless of their home country and membership in whichever organization.

The Forum acts as an impartial and neutral entity that delivers scientific information to the press and public as regards the matters of safety, risk analysis and dependability of complex technical systems. It publishes reviews, technical documents, technical reports and research essays for the purpose of dissemination of knowledge and information.

The Forum is named after Boris V. Gnedenko, an outstanding Soviet mathematician, expert in the probability theory and its applications, member of the Ukrainian Academy of Sciences. The Forum is the platform for distribution of information on educational grants, academic and professional positions related to dependability, safety and risk analysis all over the world.

Currently, the Forum has 500 members from 47 countries.

Since January 2006, the Forum has been publishing its quarterly journal, Reliability: Theory & Applications (www.gnedenko.net/RTA). The Journal is registered in the Library of Congress (ISSN 1932-2321) and publishes articles, reviews, memories, information and literature references regarding the theory and application of dependability, survivability, maintenance, risk analysis and management methods.

Since 2017, the Journal is indexed in Scopus.

Membership in the Gnedenko Forum does not imply any obligations. It is only required to send your photograph and a brief professional biography (resume) to a.bochkov@gmail.com. Templates can be found at <http://www.gnedenko.net/personalities.htm>.
